1. ABOUT AND PURPOSE

The Education Committee has been established to assist and inform Chapter Council to address member needs and concerns relating to communication between the profession and accredited schools of architecture regarding standards of education and practice readiness, and support for students and graduates.

2. OBJECTIVES

As a nominated committee of Chapter Council, the education committee acts in support of the Queensland Chapter President, Chapter Council and operates under the Council's aims, objectives and terms of reference, as expressed in the Australian Institute of Architects: Chapter Council Charter (Adopted March 2015). Working in accordance with the Institute's policies and strategic direction, the overarching objectives of the Australian Institute of Architects Queensland Chapter, education committee are to:

Act as the conduit to enable collaboration between the architectural profession, academics, and students.

Support independent accreditation of tertiary level architectural programs as a key component of professional registration by contributing to the ongoing accreditation process of the Board of Architects Queensland (BOAQ) and Architects Accreditation Council of Australasia (AACA).

Support students and graduates on their journey to registration through the provision of resources, information, mentoring, and connection.

Support the profession in understanding accreditation standards and obligations relating to learning in practice for students and graduates on the pathway to registration.

Support and broker research collaborations between the membership and academic institutions that contribute towards new knowledge with a particular focus on issues of practice readiness and education quality, and projects that support the Institute's advocacy and policy agendas.

Provide outreach to the general public that explains and celebrates the work done by architects and the value of design.

Provide strategic insight through research to assist developing policy positions of the institute. To track and report on future trends in architectural education and accreditation processes nationally and globally.

Promote and support high standards of lifelong architectural education by advising on the development of the Institute's education offerings ensuring relevance, accessibility, and quality.

Advocate for architectural education and learning in practice that fosters inclusivity responsive to an Australian context in terms of historic, social, and cultural sensitivities. This includes the recognition of and action on issues of equity relating to gender, first nations people, age, neuro diversity, and international students studying and working on visas.

3. ACTIVITIES

The education committee core activities include, but are not limited to:

- Sharing insights of, and reporting on, activities, policy, and programs at local universities and affiliated groups. This is done through regular general business meetings held approximately every two months with a minimum of 4 general business meetings delivered in a calendar year.
- Host discussions at a deeper level focussed on topics relevant to the committee. This is done through regular special topics meetings held approximately every two months with a minimum of 4 special topics meetings delivered in a calendar year.
- The formation of sub committees and groups to focus on special projects that direct research, initiate action, and to report back to the wider committee at general business meetings for consensus and endorsement.
- To develop events and programs that address the objectives of community outreach.
- To develop events and programs that address the objectives of student and graduate support.
- To develop resources that address objectives of student and graduate support.
- To prepare discussion papers for consideration of Chapter Council at state level.

4. OBLIGATIONS

The committee will:

- 4.1 Provide strategic guidance, support and assistance to Queensland Chapter Council and staff on the needs of the committee and by extension the needs of the Queensland Chapter members under the topic and remit of the Committee.
- 4.2 Provide timely information to Queensland Chapter Council and staff on the resourcing needs of the committee and support required for committee projects and events.
- 4.3 Submit an annual report and yearly plan for the year following for inclusion at the annual planning day.
- 4.4 Develop plans and projects in collaboration with the Chapter staff and for review by Chapter Council based on the requirements of matters relevant to the committee's core activities.
- 4.5 Keep the Chapter Council, President and Chapter Manager informed of the progress of work undertaken and of any issues that may affect its quality or cost.

It is the responsibility of the committee to ensure that projects and events are undertaken in a timely and constructive manner. This may mean committee members taking on tasks or identifying appropriate external stakeholders to be approached regarding specific tasks.

The chair of the committee may serve as the committee representative on the Queensland Chapter Council, where possible, and participate as a conduit for information on topical matters. Where this is not possible due to the elective process of chapter councillor appointments, a chapter councillor will be assigned membership of the committee and act as the committee conduit to Chapter Council.

5. MEMBERSHIP

Where possible, the education committee will be comprised of an odd number of members. The education committee will consist of a minimum of 7 and maximum of 15 volunteer members, consisting of a nominated or endorsed chair from Chapter Council and 6-14 volunteer members.

Members will:

- 5.1 Be financial members of the Australian Institute of Architects Queensland Chapter, EmAGN or SONA.
- 5.2 Behave with discretion, objectivity, integrity and in accordance with member behavioural policy at all times.
- 5.3 Behave professionally and in accordance with Code of Professional Conduct at all times.
- 5.4 Thoughtfully consider the social, cultural and environmental impact of their activities.
- 5.5 Keep their committee informed of the progress of work undertaken and of any issues that may affect its quality or cost.
- 5.6 Attend a minimum of 75% of the committee's meetings to remain a member of the committee.
- 5.7 Not engage in behaviour that is in direct conflict with the committee's objectives and goals.
- 5.8 Provide ongoing contribution to committee discussions and engage in open communication with chapter personnel to remain a member of the committee.
- 5.9 Acknowledge there is a zero tolerance of abusive or aggressive behaviour towards Chapter staff and that such behaviour will result in the Member being reported to Chapter Council and potential removal from the committee, in accordance with the 209 Member Behaviour Policy, 12.0 Grievance procedure for complaints.
- 5.10 Acknowledge the Institutes commitment to gender and diversity. The committee make up should reflect appropriate representation of the membership, in accordance with the 2019 Gender equity policy.

Committee specific membership requirements

- Have insight to matters pertaining to teaching in an accredited school of architecture or allied discipline, and or,
- Have insight to matters pertaining to the student and graduate experience leading to registration, and or,
- Have insight to matters pertaining to issues of teaching and learning in practice including the provision of continual professional development, and or,

- Have insight to matters of practice readiness and the competency standards of registration, and or,
- Have insight to education pathways leading to accredited architecture programs.
- All members must have the willingness and capacity to act, contribute to, and take ownership of, various programs, research, and events undertaken by the education committee.
- Where possible, the education committee will include at least one representative from each of the institutions providing accredited architecture programs.
- Where possible, the education committee will include at least two members of either graduate or emerging architect status to encourage the transfer of knowledge between established committee members and new and emerging members,
- Where possible, the education committee will include at least one SONA member to encourage the transfer of knowledge between established committee members and students.
- The annually elected SONA representatives of each school will be invited to become members.

6. APPOINTMENT

Expressions of interest will be formally issued to the membership during February to seek member interest in joining a committee. Self-nomination via EOI to join a committee can be made via the chapter webpage and will be assessed on an ongoing basis.

Members interested in becoming committee members can self-nominate via a 1-page resume summary and summary of their interest in the committee. The nominations will be reviewed by the committee chair who has the discretion to seek the approval of the nomination from Chapter Council.

Appointment of a chapter committee member

A chapter committee member is a voting member or graduate member who is nominated and elected by voting members and graduate members in accordance with the regulations.

Appointment of student representative to a chapter committee

A student representative is a student member who is an active member of the “SONA” national membership category of the Institute.

Appointment of emerging professional representative

An emerging professional representative:

- (a) is an active member of the EmAGN Chapter committee of the Institute,
- (b) became (or would have been) eligible for graduate membership less than 15 years from the date of taking office.

Nominations should be sent to the Queensland Chapter QLD@architecture.com.au for review by the committee chair.

Applications will be assessed by existing committee chair in consultation with the committee members for suitability and presented to the chapter council for approval.

When seeking and assessing prospective committee members, every effort should be made to promote fairness, equity, and diversity. Reference should be made to the Australian Institute of Architects Gender Equity Policy (2019). Successful candidates will be notified of their appointment.

Appointment of committee chair

In the year that the tenure of the standing chair expires, nominations for the role of chair and co-chair of the committee shall be taken prior to the October general meeting and circulated with the meeting agenda.

The voting process will be undertaken transparently and fairly under the advice from standing members of the institute executive team.

Appointment of committee co-chair

A co-chair shall be appointed concurrently with the appointment of the committee chair. The role of the co-chair shall be to provide strategic advice, assist with administrative duties, and to stand in the place of the chair should circumstances prevent the chair from acting in the role. It is assumed that the co-chair will nominate for the chair position once the term of the chair has expired. The co-chair will be automatically nominated for the role of chair but may choose to withdraw their nomination.

Endorsement of Chapter Committee Chair

During the last monthly session of the year for chapter council the chapter councillors will endorse the committee chair for each committee for the following year.

Casual Vacancy

There will be a casual vacancy on the committee if: (i) a disqualifying event occurs in respect of a committee member; (ii) a committee member ceases to be a member; (iii) a committee member is absent without leave of absence from two consecutive committee meetings.

7. TERM OF COMMITTEE MEMBERSHIP

Committee terms of appointment shall be for a term of two years with members retiring or re-nominating on a rotational basis. Any member may be re-appointed for a further term at the discretion of the chapter council. Ongoing and long-term contribution to the committee work is encouraged and highly valued.

Members deemed to not be contributing may be asked by the chapter council to stand down.

The chairperson shall serve not more than a two-year term before standing down or seeking re-election.

8. INTEREST AND DECLARATION OF INTEREST

As articulated in Clause 5 of the Australian Institute of Architects: Chapter Council Charter (Adopted March 2015 (extract below), the provisions of this clause extend to the members and procedures of any Chapter Standing Committee, Taskforce, or ad hoc committee, except that where applicable, the relevant Institute staff member supporting the committee may also raise an Interest or possible Interest for determination by the Committee.

(Extract from Australian Institute of Architects: Chapter Council Charter (Adopted March 2015))

5.1. An Interest is a business or other relationship which could, or could reasonably be perceived by others, to now or in the future materially interfere with an individual's ability to act in the best interests of the Institute and not in their own or another person's interests.

5.2. An Interest under this Charter includes non-financial interests that might not be considered “material” at law.

5.3. Chapter Councillors must be free from any Interest when discussing and deliberating on any Chapter Council business, except where such Interest has been formally declared and recorded as follows:

5.3.1. Chapter Councillors must declare an ongoing Interest, which is to be recorded regularly in the Minutes of any meeting of Chapter Council. If recorded, a Chapter Councillor may without explanation withdraw during discussion of or deliberation on any matter where that Interest may operate.

5.3.2. Chapter Councillors must also declare any Interest that arises in particular circumstances or in the context of business being considered by Council, and the declaration is to be recorded in the Minutes.

5.3.3. An Interest or possible Interest may be raised by the Chapter President, another Chapter Councillor or the Chapter Manager in writing or verbally during a discussion or deliberation by Chapter Council. The Chapter Councillor may then withdraw. If the Chapter Councillor has not withdrawn, Chapter Council must decide before discussion continues whether the Interest is operative and if so, require the Chapter Councillor to withdraw. Alternatively, the Chapter Council may decide to allow the Chapter Councillor to remain present but not take part in discussion and if a vote is required, abstain from voting. If Chapter Council decides that an Interest is operative, the Minutes must record the details of their decision.

9. MEETINGS

The chair of the committee may at any time convene a meeting. Meetings shall be convened monthly or bi-monthly at the discretion of the committee chair, except for the months of December and January.

Notice of a committee meeting must be given to each committee member entitled to vote at the meeting. A committee member may waive the requirement to receive notice of a committee meeting.

A notice of a committee meeting must specify: (i) the place, the day and the time of the meeting; and (ii) if the meeting is to be held in two or more places, the technology that will be used to facilitate this, but it does not need to specify the nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting.

In special circumstances, a notice of a committee meeting may be given immediately before the meeting.

The meetings and proceedings of committees are: (i) subject to any directions of the Board; and (ii) otherwise governed by the provisions of this Constitution which regulate the proceedings of the Board, to the greatest extent practical.

10. PRIVACY

A privacy policy has been developed by the Institute and sets out information handling practices of the Institute. Committee members should refer to this document when handling personal information of members and non-members of the Institute. Item 5.1 of this policy makes specific reference to the use and disclosure of personal information by non-staff agents of the Institute.

11. REPORTING

Minutes for all meetings are to be recorded and stored electronically by the Institute. Records should consist of key actions, outcomes, and decisions, but do not require details of discussions to be kept.

The chair or minute taker nominated for meetings is to circulate an agenda and minutes of previous meetings the relevant committee members and chapter personal prior to the next meeting.

The committee is to report activity to the Chapter Council and other chapter programs one week prior to Chapter Council meetings.

12. GRIEVANCES

The Australian Institute of Architects is committed to best practice governance and best practice employment and workplace conditions. The Institute is committed to fostering a values-based culture that is collaborative, positive, and safe.

All committee members are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with the principles outlined in the Institute's Member Behaviour Policy (2019). The Institute's core values include:

- One community – embracing diversity and open communication,
- Innovation – demonstrating leadership with courage and creativity,
- Accountability – acting with integrity, responsibility, and sustainability,
- Respect – relating with empathy and recognition for effort,
- Collaboration – working together, with trust and transparency.

There is a zero tolerance for abuse or aggressive behaviour by and towards committee members and Chapter staff as per the member behaviour policy.

Grievance procedure for complaints about a member:

The Australian Institute of Architects is committed to best practice governance and best practice employment and workplace conditions. The Institute is committed to fostering a values-based culture that is collaborative, positive, and safe.

All committee members are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with the principles outlined in the Institute's Member Behaviour Policy (2019). The Institute's core values include:

- Members who are concerned about other members should report the matter, in the first instance, to their local Executive Director and the President,
- Complaints escalated for action regarding the conduct of a member will be dealt with by the CEO or the National President, except where there is a need to remove a member from the workplace, premises, or conversation. The Institute responses to inappropriate conduct by Members are set out in Schedule1 of the Member Behavioural Policy.

13. COMMITTEE AND CHAPTER STAFF RELATIONSHIP

Under the Institutes delegated Authority Policy, the Chapter Council nor its authorised committees do not conduct the institutes business activities, nor do they deliver services. Chapter staff and the Executive Director are responsible for the delivery of activities and services.

(Extract from Australian Institute of Architects: Chapter Council Charter (Adopted March 2015))

6.3. In collaboration with the CEO and relevant general managers, the Executive Director manages the operations of the chapter including but not limited to the financial and physical resources.

Providing all necessary direction and instruction to staff. Committee members do not have the authority to direct or instruct staff.

14. BUDGET AND STAFF RESOURCING

The chapter will provide staff resourcing to support the facilitation meetings and the delivery of approved events.

A request for support for an event or project requiring unbudgeted funds must be done as a formal request to the Executive Director via an event / project request. The template requires all costings associated with the request and the strategic outcomes that will be associated with the event or project, to be declared. These requests must be done, where possible, at least 3 months in advance. Approval is at the discretion of the Executive Director.

15. REVIEW

These Terms of Reference will be reviewed and updated as required in relation to:

- Overarching rules / responsibilities and currency in relation to internal and external stakeholders (trigger = change in Institute policy / regulations, or as otherwise deemed necessary by chapter office/chapter council),
- Committee specific remit within the committee (every 2 years, or as otherwise deemed necessary),
- Changes to be sought through chapter office and reviewed and approved by chapter council.
