

Senior Architect
August 2022

Winwood McKenzie is looking for a talented registered architect with a minimum of 5 years experience to join our team. The role is appropriate for someone who is passionate about architecture - specifically its realisation through exquisite detailing and comprehensive documentation that demonstrates a curiosity in how architecture is put together. Ideally, you will have experience as a project architect and be developing your skills at leading projects and working both independently and as part of the team. We are looking for an architect who is keen to be involved in the dynamic growth of an emerging practice in a long term role.

Project Role

Your role will include responsibility for the delivery of documentation, tendering, and contract administration. Coordination of project team during the design development, documentation, and contract administration stages of residential and commercial projects.

As a senior architect you will have a high level of involvement with clients, consultants, collaborators, and builders to deliver projects.

Skills and Experience

- 5 + years experience
- Self-motivated professional who takes responsibility for delivering outcomes.
- Experience in documentation of high end residential projects including liaising with suppliers and fabricators, and, collaborating with consultants and contractors.
- Efficient preparation of documentation drawings, schedules, and specifications.
- Excellent attention to detail and interest in materials and construction.
- Be aware and comfortable in identifying and communicating issues or difficulties in completing tasks and realising aspects of the design in a constructive and professional manner.
- Knowledge of building codes, standards, and regulations, of the building industry.
- Organised, well-presented, and a positive attitude.
- Excellent Revit skills
- Registered with the ARBV

Remuneration and Hours

Salary will be commensurate with experience and skills

Full time position

Our studio is located in Naarm, the land of the Kulin Nation, in the Melbourne CBD.

Apply

If you have a passion for architecture, materiality, and research and are enthusiastic about realising architecture please send your CV and portfolio in PDF format to studio@winwoodmckenzie.com.au.