

Australian
Institute of Architects

Learning Outcomes – Clover Moore

- Enumerate key elements of the City of Sydney's efforts to improve sustainability across the LGA.
- Describe the factors driving increased density in the City of Sydney and the benefits that support community acceptance.
- Relate the history of transport in the city to social and economic causes and impacts.
- Provide examples of negotiations between the City and developers to ensure better outcomes for the community and the built environment.