

Learning Outcomes – Residential Carbon Measurements

- Define and distinguish between upfront and embodied carbon.
- Outline the actions necessary to respond to the Embodied Emissions Reporting of the new Sustainable Buildings SEPP and embodied carbon NABERS.
- Outline the minimum actions necessary to progress lower upfront carbon designs across the project life cycle.
- Evaluate and select lower upfront carbon design solutions and materials.
- Complete a simple whole life carbon payback for a design solution.