

Learning Outcomes – Sustainable Futures – The Past, Present and Future of Structural Timber

- Describe the changing role of timber in construction, in particular in relation to sustainability.
- Explain how contemporary methods of manufacture facilitate the use of timber in buildings and enumerate their chief advantages.
- Demonstrate knowledge about the fire resistance engineering of timber, and how detailing and surface coatings can be used to achieve required fire safety.