2. Who we are

At Mihaly Slocombe, we craft purposeful architecture with joy.

For us, even the smallest of details are an opportunity to explore big ideas. Design doesn't just happen at the beginning of our process, it continues from the first sketch to the end of construction.

We're a team of nine working on a great range of houses, schools, office fitouts and public architecture. We're a friendly bunch that enjoys a strong connection to the local architecture community, grabs lunch together on most days, and likes to take part in the many design events Melbourne has to offer.

Warwick and Erica are leaders in the profession, closely involved with ArchiTeam, the Australian Institute of Architects and the ARBV. Warwick also writes Panfilo, Australia's most widely read business blog for architects, and co-hosts In Detail, a podcast that takes listeners behind the scenes of creative business.

3. The role in a nutshell

We're looking for a talented interior designer to join our small team. You'll need to work collaboratively, think creatively and have strong attention to detail. You'll use your design talent, industry experience and organisational skills to create great architecture and interiors.

You'll support our team of architects across our portfolio of projects, with a focus on interior design, materials composition and selection of fittings. You'll have the support of Warwick and Erica, the principals at Mihaly Slocombe, to achieve the successful and timely delivery of project deadlines.

You'll play an important role in contributing to the culture of our small studio.

4. You can do it because

You are an interior designer with 3 – 5 years post-graduate experience

You have Jedi mastery of ArchiCAD, SketchUp, the Adobe Creative Suite and Microsoft Office (experience with Streamtime, Slack and Trello is a bonus)

You love design, and being an integral part of the creative process

You have experience working on new houses, house renovations, schools and offices

You have strong design and documentation skills, knowledge of construction and a passion for craft

You have exceptionally high professional standards, excellent judgement, and quick and accurate problem solving

You have second to none time management skills – you love a good deadline and thrive under pressure

You have excellent communication skills

You are great at collaborating and being a team player

You have laser-like attention to detail, know how to prioritise and can multi-task like a champion

5. What's in it for you

You'll be joining a passionate team of architects who are friendly, love a good laugh, love a good dress-up, and love baking cakes for each other. And most importantly, enjoy being around each other between 8.30am and 5pm each day. You'll work in the heart of Brunswick East, with easy access to public transport and good lunch spots.

You'll get the chance to work on exciting projects across a range of types, all with a strong commitment to great design.

You'll get the chance to expand your experience and grow further in your career. You'll have the opportunity to collaborate with Erica, Warwick and our team, as well as work independently.

6. Contact

Send us your resume at info@mihalyslocombe.com.au, and tell us why you think we'll be a great fit for each other.

Looking forward to hearing from you,

Warwick Mihaly and Erica Slocombe
