

Project Architect

Who We Are

At C. Kairouz Architects we are an innovative collective of designers, planners, and problem solvers working across a variety commercial & residential architectural and interior projects. Our focus is to create better buildings for better communities, now and in the future.

We believe that for buildings to be better they must be sustainable, responsible, and holistic in design. Spaces should enhance wellbeing, reduce waste, be well-built, use materials wisely and incorporate efficiencies & technology to help us live better and leave a positive legacy while having minimal impact on the environment.

2021 is shaping up to be an exciting year for our practice and we are on the lookout for a passionate Project Architect to join the team, who wants to grow with us. We are after a likeminded individual who shares our vision and cares about architecture & design solutions that matter. If this sounds like you, please read on!
